

Contact:

GRAND-AM Communications

Herb Branham

(386) 310-6050

hbranham@nascar.com

No. 2 Team In GRAND-AM Rolex Sports Car Series Fined, Penalized

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (March 11, 2013) – GRAND-AM Road Racing has issued monetary and point penalties to the No. 2 Ford/Riley Daytona Prototype entry that competes in the Rolex Sports Car Series, as a result of a rule infraction discovered following the GRAND-AM of The Americas at Circuit of The Americas on March 2.

Unauthorized modifications were found to the team's fueling probe, a violation of Section 7.1.4 ("Dry-Break. The dry-break must be ... unmodified") of the GRAND-AM Rule Book.

As a result:

- The team, Starworks Motorsport, has been penalized with the loss of three team championship points;
- Drivers Alex Popow and Ryan Dalziel have each been penalized three driver championship points;
- Ford has been penalized three manufacturer championship points;
- The team has been fined $5,000, payable to Camp Boggy Creek, the official charity of GRAND-AM.